Lot 65 is located in the heart of Couch Mountain and embodies a harmonious blend of eco-conscious living and breathtaking natural beauty. Perched atop an upland plateau, just 30 minutes south of Asheville and 20 minutes north of Hendersonville, this haven showcases the essence of mindful living. The philosophy here is simple yet profound: to create a home while preserving the sanctity of the surrounding landscape. Facing west, the lot unveils an awe-inspiring panorama of the ancient Appalachians, stretching seamlessly from north to south. Here, nature's artwork takes center stage, inviting residents to embrace the tranquility and splendor of the wilderness. What sets Couch Mountain apart is its commitment to conservation; a remarkable 138 acres of the sprawling 395 acres have been devoted to preservation into perpetuity, ensuring a legacy of natural wonder for generations to come. Lot 65 has percolated for a four bedroom home.
